

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Brigadier General Theodore D. Johnson's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Brigadier General Johnson has devoted over 35 years of his life to the service of this state and country as director of the joint staff, chief of staff, commander, and leader of the best; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Brigadier General Johnson continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Brigadier General Theodore D. Johnson for over 35 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 11, 2014, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
